

QUESTIONS:

Find one thing from your notes you are curious about. Form TWO questions that the cannot answered without research.

Start your questions with HOW and WHY.

NOTES:

1. As you look through the photos, notice the stark contrasts between living conditions. Look carefully and in your notes make three observations about the divisions.
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.
2. While watching the video, Apartheid Explained, taking notes. You need to jot down 10+ facts. The facts should be important, not trivial pieces of information. Don't write, "Africa has farmers". Be sure to skip lines after each fact.
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.
 - d.
3. While viewing the prezi, jot down 5+ details that you feel are important.
4. Watch the 8-minute video, South Africa may take land from white farmers. While watching the video, write 20+ facts. Once again, facts are important pieces of information.
5. After being informed about the apartheid and the current mood in South Africa, form an opinion about the country's handling of bringing about equality. No personal pronouns.

SUMMARY – write complete sentences

Write a SIX sentence summary of your notes. Write your summary as if you are telling a friend about the history and the current events of South Africa.

QUESTIONS / CONNECTIONS:

Write at least TWO questions and include at least ONE connection to history, present day, or other texts.

NOTES:

As you read, look carefully at how the story is constructed. Authors will create meaning by manipulating elements of literature like the setting, characters, theme, plot, point of view, or conflict. Authors will also manipulate conventions of English, like punctuation, spelling, or format.

Choose three significant factors in the story. Write three pieces of evidence that best represent each. Evidence is direct quotes from the story.

- 1) Significant factor
 - a. "evidence"
- 2) Significant factor
 - a. "evidence"
- 3) Significant factor
 - a. "evidence"

Write any words that you are not 100% sure of the meaning. Find out what they mean.

-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-

SUMMARY – write complete sentences

What is the most important part from your notes? Explain why. (6+ sentences)